STATUTORILY REQUIRED NOTICES

Subdivision (o) of Vehicle Code section 11713.3 prohibits factory-owned dealerships within a 10-mile radius of a privately owned dealership of the same line-make (see page 3). There are two limited exceptions to this prohibition: (1) temporary ownership (Veh. Code § 11713.3(o)(2)(A)); and (2) bona fide dealer development program (Veh. Code § 11713.3(o)(2)(B)). The statutorily required notices that are filed with the Board provide as follows:

(1) Statutory Notice Re: Factory Ownership of Dealership

Vehicle Code section 11713.3(o)(3)(A) requires every manufacturer, branch, and distributor that owns or operates a dealership for a temporary period (not to exceed one year at the location of a former dealership of the same line-make that has been out of operation for less than six months) shall give written notice to the Board, within 10 days, each time it commences or terminates operation of a dealership and each time it acquires, changes, or divests itself of an ownership interest.

(2) Annual Statutory Notice Re: Dealer Development Stores

Vehicle Code section 11713.3(o)(3)(B) requires every manufacturer, branch, and distributor that owns an interest in a dealer as part of a bona fide dealer development program as defined shall give written notice to the Board, annually, of the name and location of each dealer in which it has an ownership interest, the name of the bona fide dealer development owner or owners, and the ownership interests of each owner expressed as a percentage.

Filings Subject to Public Disclosure

The Board maintains all of these filings as public records subject to disclosure under the California Public Records Act (Gov. Code § 6250 et seq.).

LEGISLATION

(3) Assembly Bill 287 (effective January 1, 2017)

The Consumer Automotive Recall Safety Act, sponsored by the California New Car Dealers Association, amended Vehicle Code section 3065 (Assembly Bill 287; Stats. 2016, Ch. 682). For Article 4 protests (cars, motorcycles, and ATVs), franchisors are required to adequately and fairly compensate each of its franchisees for labor and parts used to provide warranty diagnostics, repair, servicing, and all other conditions of the obligation, including costs directly associated with the disposal of hazardous materials that are associated with a recall repair.

REGULATIONS

The Board recently promulgated several regulatory amendments pertaining to case management summarized, in part, as follows (see pages 4-5 for the complete text):

(4) Regulation (Effective January 1, 2017)

13 CCR § 550 - the definitions of Protest and Protestant were amended to reflect a Vehicle Code section 3085 “export or sale-for-resale prohibition policy” protest filed by an association. For purposes of Vehicle Code section 3085, an association (an organization primarily owned by, or comprised of, new motor vehicle dealers and that primarily represents the interests of dealers) is a protestant.

(5) Regulation (Effective April 1, 2017)

13 CCR § 590 - provides that all hearings on protests filed pursuant to Articles 4, 5, and 6 may be considered by the entire Board or may be conducted by an administrative law judge designated by the Board at its discretion. Section 590 was amended to reflect Vehicle Code section 3085 protests.

California Vehicle Code Section 11713.3(o)

It is unlawful and a violation of this code for a manufacturer, manufacturer branch, distributor, or distributor branch licensed pursuant to this code to do, directly or indirectly through an affiliate, any of the following:

(o) (1) To compete with a dealer in the same line-make operating under an agreement or franchise from a manufacturer or distributor in the relevant market area.

(2) A manufacturer, branch, or distributor, or an entity that controls or is controlled by a manufacturer, branch, or distributor, shall not, however, be deemed to be competing in the following limited circumstances:

(A) Owning or operating a dealership for a temporary period, not to exceed one year at the location of a former dealership of the same line-make that has been out of operation for less than six months. However, after a showing of good cause by a manufacturer, branch, or distributor that it needs additional time to operate a dealership in preparation for sale to a successor independent franchisee, the board may extend the time period.

(B) Owning an interest in a dealer as part of a bona fide dealer development program that satisfies all of the following requirements:

(i) The sole purpose of the program is to make franchises available to persons lacking capital, training, business experience, or other qualities ordinarily required of prospective franchisees and the dealer development candidate is an individual who is unable to acquire the franchise without assistance of the program.

(ii) The dealer development candidate has made a significant investment subject to loss in the franchised business of the dealer.

(iii) The program requires the dealer development candidate to manage the day-to-day operations and business affairs of the dealer and to acquire, within a reasonable time and on reasonable terms and conditions, beneficial ownership and control of a majority interest in the dealer and disassociation of any direct or indirect ownership or control by the manufacturer, branch, or distributor.

(C) Owning a wholly owned subsidiary corporation of a distributor that sells motor vehicles at retail, if, for at least three years prior to January 1, 1973, the subsidiary corporation has been a wholly owned subsidiary of the distributor and engaged in the sale of vehicles at retail.

(3) (A) A manufacturer, branch, and distributor that owns or operates a dealership in the manner described in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2) shall give written notice to the board, within 10 days, each time it commences or terminates operation of a dealership and each time it acquires, changes, or divests itself of an ownership interest.

(B) A manufacturer, branch, and distributor that owns an interest in a dealer in the manner described in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2) shall give written notice to the board, annually, of the name and location of each dealer in which it has an ownership interest, the name of the bona fide dealer development owner or owners, and the ownership interests of each owner expressed as a percentage.
